

Dr ELEFThERIA CARINOU

Eleftheria CARINOU, born in Athens (Greece).

Diplomas:

- Master in Medical Physics, 1997, University of Athens, Athens, Greece.
- PhD in Medical Physics 2004, University of Athens, Athens, Greece.

Current functions:

- Director of the Directorate of Licensing and Regulatory Inspections of Greek Atomic Energy Commission, EEAE

Organisational skills and competences

- Participation in European and national projects focussing on occupational dosimetry, radiation protection and management systems
- Lectures on radiation dosimetry, individual monitoring and radiation protection, legislative framework
- Participation in national working groups for drafting national legislation on basic safety standards, nuclear safety and safe management of radiation waste
- Participation for designing and implementing the integrated management system of the regulatory body
- Cooperation with many Greek research institutes for the involvement of the end users in radiation protection
- Participation at different missions organized by IAEA.
- Ability to work using databases and perform statistical analysis
- Member of Article 31 Group of Experts of Euratom Treaty
- Member of Eurados Group (www.eurados.org)
- Citations 1462 and h index 22 – December 2022